

CPYRGHT

LOOKING BACKWARD

From The Times
Of 30 and 15 Years Ago
(July 18, 1930.)

A tentative agreement was reached today between the United Mine Workers of America and the Anthracite Operators Association on a five-year pact governing wages and working conditions.

City Solicitor C. B. Little forwarded to City Council a draft of the proposed ordinance licensing buses, with a $50 annual fee for each bus.

John J. Gilroy, Sr., pioneer merchant, died last night at his home, 638 North Main Ave.

(July 18, 1945.)

Lt. Col. Henry S. Lawrence spent nearly $19,000 in his unsuccessful campaign for the Republican nomination for mayor in the June primary election.

Col. Stanley J. Grogan, former Scranton newspaperman, was today presented the Oak Leaf cluster to the Legion of Merit by Gen. Mark W. Clark in Austria.

Memorial tablets for two World War 1 officers of Co. A, 103rd Engineers—Lt. Col. Frank J. Duffy of Scranton and Lt. Col. Harry C. Hill of Pittston—who were killed in action in August, 1918, will be unveiled Sunday at the 28th Division Memorial Shrine in Boalsburg.